SENIOR CLASS POEM

by

Patricia Wright

It's difficult
    sometimes to say
Just what we wish to find the way
To thank all you
    who've made these years
So 'specially wonderful and dear

It's our turn now
    to say goodbye
To all we've had
    at Hingham High
We leave you now
    the time is passed
We leave our work
    and end this class

Through all four years
    our paths were one
The goal is reached
    this journey's done
But now our paths must separate
Our futures are in the hands of fate

To you whom we must leave behind
We leave one thought to bear in mind
Our future yields
    just what we earn
We've far to go and much to learn

THOUGHTS AT COMMENCEMENT

by

Pamela J. Foltz

Oh the road is wide
And the road is long
And some will be weak
And some will be strong
But travel we must
And no returning.

But there'll come a day
The road will divide
Here a mountain path
There a highway wide
And so we must choose
And no returning.

Oh some will climb up
The tortuous way
And some will plod down
'Long the broad highway
But journey we must
And no returning.

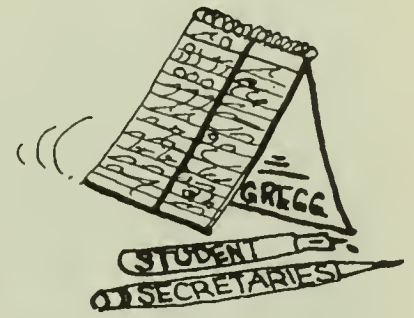

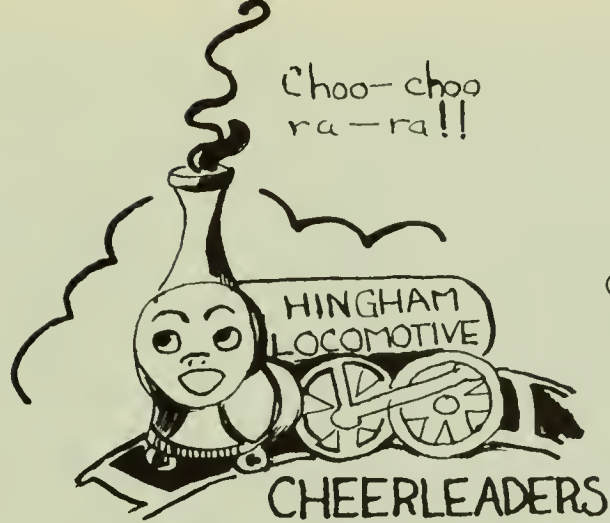

And some will borrow
And others will lend
And some will linger
To lift up a friend
But onward we press
And no returning.

See those dancing feet
So blythe and so gay
Not a mark they leave
As they go their way
Yet they gaily pass
And no returning.

Those resolute steps
So firm and so strong
Leave a well marked path
As they move along
As forward they go
And no returning.

And each in his way
Is striving to find
The goal of his heart
And his peace of mind
At the journey's end
And no returning.

After hard weeks of practice the 1951 "Big Red" football squad gave promising outlooks to their coach, Art Radvilas, and assistant coaches, Press Barry, and Ernie Dorr. Although the Harbormen were handicapped somewhat by the lack of size they managed to balance this by their speed.

The opening game was all that it was expected to be, a hard fought battle, but Hingham bowed to Winthrop in a 20-6 defeat. Despite the loss things looked bright. It appeared that Hingham had finally shaken off the injury jinx of the past two seasons. This did not hold true for long, as the Harbormen soon lost the services of Eddie Callahan for several weeks, to top the list of injuries. The second game followed the same pattern as the first, and Hingham again tasted defeat by North Quincy's 7-0 victory. The list of injuries increased more as the season progressed--Jimmy Jenkins, Camillo Spirito, Ken Hubbart, Henry Kelly, Frank Allegra and Dick Wylie were sidelined at intervals. After the first two games Lady Luck changed her course as Hingham won over Abington 13-0. On a Columbus Day encounter Braintree defeated Hingham 27-13. The next four games showed what the Harbormen were really capable of doing as they won over in succession; Wellesley, Plymouth, Whitman, and Randolph.

The season was brought to a close by the Thanksgiving Day game in which this year issued forth a new holiday rivalry between Hingham and Rockland. This was a close, thrilling, terrific but heartbreaking loss as the Harbormen were overcome in the last few minutes of play to suffer a 26-20 defeat. The main factor in this last game was the spirit displayed by all the boys on the squad. With this game the 1951 football season was concluded and the high school football career came to an end for Co-Captains Dick Shannon and Frank Allegra, as well as for Jimmy Jenkins, Eddie Callahan, Henry Kelly, Don Baltucci, Leo Mack and Dick Wylie.

Throughout the season Foster Webb, Jack Lynch, Bob Thomas, Gene Smith, Dick Kehoe, Phil Houseman, Art Hornstra, Wayne Young, and Charlie Lersch gave outstanding performances, giving the Hingham High football picture a bright hue for promising results in 1952.

HINGHAM HIGH BASKETBALL

Hingham had about the same luck in basketball this year as it did last. The start of the season gave hopes of a Hingham basketball team going to the Tech Tourney; but these hopes were shattered as the season neared its close and showed a record of 9 wins out of 14 games, placing Hingham in 4th place in the Old Colony League.

The active players, Jack Lynch, Bob Thomas, "Skipper" Urbati, Bill Fibkins, Jimmy Jenkins, and Paul Sargeant played what proved to be an exciting series of games this season. The Junior Varsity teamed promising future basketball players who came up this year with an undefeated season. It looks as if Hingham will have no worries in the future in regard to a good basketball team.

FIELD HOCKEY

A spirited and enthusiastic group of girls composed the 1951 Field Hockey Team. Although the record stands with 2 wins, 2 ties, and 9 losses, the girls never lost enthusiasm and gave the teams good opposition.

The team was coached by Miss Marion Stallwood and captained by Mary Fraser.

The opening game was played with Foxboro on a wet and muddy field. The girls were able to hold Foxboro to a 1-1 tie. The next three games were with Canton, Braintree, and North Easton, who were victorious over our girls. In the next two games Hingham defeated Randolph 5-0, and also were victorious over Braintree 2-0. The next exciting game was with Walpole, the champions of the Hockamock League. Hingham played good hockey and tied Walpole 1-1. In the following games our girls were defeated by Canton, Hanover, Walpole, and Scituate.

With the experience that the underclassmen gained this year, there is good material for next years team.

CLASS WILL

by

Claire Galvin and Ginny Morrison

We, the class of '52, having floundered, tripped and skipped (?) through four harrowing years of exposure to education, now dedicate what is left of our book-weary selves in this our last will and testament.

- 1st - We leave our gratitude and appreciation to the faculty who always did their utmost to lessen our ignorance and make school more enjoyable.
  - 2nd - To the class of '53 we pass down our questionable prestige as Seniors, and our spitballs and tacks.
  - 3rd - "Jody" Doyle and Gretchen Johnson leave their terrific twirling talent to Joan Sestito and Carol Fardig.
  - 4th - Barb Hood, Laura Mae, and Bayne leave clown costumes and red noses to anyone with enough talent and stamina.
  - 5th - Paula Morse leaves her bubbling enthusiasm and incompleted sentences to Kay Sullivan.
  - 6th - Betty Hilliard bequeaths her Junior Queen crown to the beauties of the future classes.
  - 7th - Gayle, Ginny, Jackie, and Carol will their pep as an extra supply for next year's Rockland game.
  - 8th - Laura Goedecke and Nancy Dennis leave their paintbrushes and outstanding talent to the budding artists of the future.
  - 9th - Henry Kelly leaves his blushes to Eddie Richards.
  - 10th - Mary Fraser leaves her shin pads and hockey stick to Jackie James.
  - 11th - Kenny Elliot and Pat Risio leave their Martin and Lewis routine to any one strong enough to stand the strain.
  - 12th - The Varsity "H" Club leaves a needle and thread to Mr. Radvilas.
  - 13th - Jimmy Jenkins leaves his "way with the girls" to "Buddy" Ryan.
  - 14th - Ruth McTighe leaves that "well-dressed" look to Janet Rogers.
  - 15th - John Downing wills his unending supply of "Double-Mint" to anyone who has jaws strong enough to stand it.
  - 16th - Barbie Graham and Maryann Gratta leave their love for football to Sherry Hilliard and Joan Haskell.
  - 17th - To anyone with enough luck, Randy Mitchell leaves his ability to convince all teachers that he has his homework done.
  - 18th - Dotty Kelley and Carol Linscott leave their mathematical minds to anyone who has trouble adding two and two.
  - 19th - Pam and Diane C. leave their "A's" to anyone who will work equally as hard for them.
  - 20th - Gunver wills her copy of "I Talk To The Trees" to Mr. Higgins to play to next year's Senior English classes.
  - 21st - Joanna Cleary leaves her worn-down tires and three point landings to Fred Fahnley.
  - 22nd - Marilyn Murch and Claire Galvin leave their unending laughter to those who want to be equally as much fun.
  - 23rd - Betty Charubini leaves her book on "Ballroom Dancing in Ten Easy Lessons" to anyone who wants to learn how to step on peoples toes gracefully.
  - 24th - Having completely exhausted the supply of books, pencils, and teachers' patience, we leave Hingham High School.

The Class Song of '52

Words and Music

By GUNVER EILEEN JOHNSON

Here stands the Class of '52,
Our thanks to you we sing.
Far have we come since Freshman days,
Our goal achieved in many ways.
Friendships dear and pleasant cheer,
We have found in school's career.
We find it hard to part —
From a place that's been so dear.

Thanks we give to our Faculty
For all that they have done —
We'll prove an inspiration in the many days to come.
Now we shall leave by our special paths,
Helped by God's unceasing care.
We're singing our farewell to you —
Farewell, dear Hingham High School.
